Brief History of Athens State University

Athens State University is one of the oldest universities in the state of Alabama and possesses a rich history. The Athens State story started in 1821 when a group of citizens from Athens, Alabama had a vision for an institute of higher learning. After Judge John McKinley donated five acres of land and a single building was built, Athens Female Academy was born, and the storied history that would eventually lead to the creation of Athens State University began.

In 1842, ownership of the school was transferred to the Tennessee Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. With this transition, Athens Female Academy became Athens Female Institute. This name remained throughout the conflict of the Civil War and through the birth of the North Alabama Conference of the Methodist Church in 1870, when the Institution came under the jurisdiction of that body. Following this transfer to the newly formed conference, the name was again changed in 1889 to Athens Female College.

In 1929, the Alabama legislature approved a name change to Athens College. Following changes in social mores and community needs, Athens Female College was transformed into a co-educational institution of higher learning. More than 40 years later, the College sought, and was granted affiliation with the State of Alabama as a public institution of higher learning.

Founders Hall

In June 1975, the Alabama State Board of Education accepted Athens College into the state educational system and appropriated funds for the College to assist graduates of state junior, community, and technical colleges and institutes. Renamed Athens State University in 1998, the institution transitioned, in October 2012, to a new governance structure under an independent Board of Trustees and is no longer under the oversight of the Alabama State Board of Education.

As the only institution in the state of Alabama offering exclusively upper-division degree programs and services, Athens State University continues to preserve a vital and significant position within the community. With a firm history upon which to build its foundation, the University's colorful past has supplied the institution with the tools necessary to continue serving Alabama far into the future.

GLOSSARY

Academic Year: A period of time, often used for reporting, made up of consecutive fall, spring, and summer semesters. The academic year is often referred to using the year associated with the spring and summer semesters (e.g., academic year 2022-2023 may also be referred to as academic year 2023). IPEDS collects and reports annual data for completions using a summer, fall, and spring term timeframe.

Admissions/Acceptance Rate: The percentage of applicants with a decision who were accepted for admission during a given period of time.

Admitted Student: Any applicant who has been granted admission and has received an official offer to enroll.

Applicant: Any individual seeking admission to an academic program for the first time who submits an application.

Census Date: The official reporting date for internal reports and institutional data submitted to IPEDS and ACHE.

Class: One instance of a course (or multiple courses) offered at a certain time and location that may include one section, or multiple sections (or course reference numbers) in the case of a cross-listed course. (see Course Section for distinction)

Cohort: A group of people with a common characteristic (e.g., all students who entered the institution during the same academic year) established for tracking purposes.

Completers: Graduates, or students earning a degree (unduplicated count).

Completions: The number of degrees awarded, reported by field of study, race/ethnicity, gender, and first or second major.

Course: Typically represented by a unique combination of subject code and course number (e.g., AC 301), except in the case of cross-listed courses which typically have the same course title but different subject codes.

Course Enrollment: A typically duplicated count of students enrolled in classes where students are counted for each class in which they are enrolled.

Course Section: A section of a course assigned a unique course reference number (CRN); one or more sections make up a class. (see Class for distinction)

GLOSSARY

Cross-Listed Course/Class: A course offered for registration under two or more departments (the cross-listed courses typically have the same title, but different subject codes). A cross-listed class is made up of multiple sections with the same content but different subject codes and course reference numbers (and sometimes course numbers). Cross-listed courses are taught by the same instructor typically at the same time and location.

Distance Learning (often abbreviated as DL): Distance Learning is a formal educational process in which the majority of the instruction and interaction occurs when students and instructors are not in the same physical space. Instruction may be synchronous or asynchronous with regular and substantive interaction. Distance Learning may include fully online and blended courses. Distance Education, as reported to IPEDS, excludes blended and only includes fully online courses.

Enrolled Student: A student currently registered for class(es).

Faculty Credit Hour Production: Total credit hours taught by faculty in a given period.

Fiscal Year: Funding year that runs October 1 through September 30.

Full-Time (FT) Faculty: A full- time employee whose primary duty is instruction (per IPEDS). Full-time employees whose primary duty is not instruction but who hold faculty rank (e.g., librarians) are sometimes included as full-time faculty for internal reporting.

Full-Time (FT) Student: An undergraduate student enrolled in 12 or more semester hours, or a graduate student enrolled in 9 or more semester hours.

Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) Student: Full-time equivalent enrollment calculated by term and by year using the following formulas, respectively:

- Student FTE (by Term) = Total undergraduate semester credit hours divided by 15; total graduate semester credit hours divided by 12. (Alabama Commission on Higher Education definition)
- Student FTE (12-month) = Annual undergraduate credit hours divided by 30; annual graduate credit hours divided by 24. (IPEDS definition)

GLOSSARY

Graduation Rate: The percent of degree-seeking students that completed bachelor's degree requirements at Athens State University within six years of the term in which they initially enrolled (eight years is used when based on IPEDS Outcomes Measures).

Headcount: Unduplicated count of registered students. (see Unduplicated)

Instructional Method: Related to the delivery mode of a course. Examples of course instructional method codes and descriptions:

- Blended (code BL): Course includes a blend of distance learning with the traditional classroom environment. (System description: Online with On-Campus Meeting Time)

- Online (code DL): A course taught 100% online with no required synchronous sessions. (System description: 100% Online)

- Synchronous (code SC): A course taught 100% online with some required synchronous sessions. (System description: Online with Required Live Login)

Returning Student: A previously enrolled student who is currently registered for class(es) at the same level.

Student-to-Faculty Ratio *(IPEDS definition): Student FTE divided by Faculty FTE, where:

    Student FTE = FT Students + (number of PT students divided by 3) and Faculty FTE = FT Faculty + (number of PT faculty divided by 3) + (number of teaching admin/staff divided by 3)

Student Retention Rate (Fall-to-Fall): The percentage of students from an initial cohort (new degree-seeking students each fall term - may be adjusted) who return the following fall term. Students who graduate during the initial term are not included in the calculation. (The Persistence rate is different from the Retention rate. All students or all degree seeking students, not just new students, are included in this calculation.)

The total number of classes in a given time period is lower than the total number of sections because multiple sections may be cross-listed as one class. Cross-listed classes made up of sections of different instructional methods are credited to the blended instructional method (prior to Spring 2021 they were credited to the instructional method of the section with the highest enrollment), but the credit hour production is credited to the corresponding instructional method of the section. The Fall terms do not match the academic year they are listed under (they are one year ahead).
