

Strategic Healthcare Management & Administration MS Student Learning Outcomes

Fundamental Area (FA) 1: Scholarly Development

Outcome 1.1: Students will be able to use accounting, finance, management, leadership, and marketing concepts required to lead complex and diverse healthcare organizations.

Outcome 1.2: Students will be able to apply knowledge of human capital management, team building, cultural competence, and diversity in the health care environment.

FA 2: Advanced Communication

Outcome 2.1: Students will communicate effectively, both orally and in writing, in a senior healthcare management role.

FA 3: Professional Responsibility, Leadership, and Management Skills

Outcome 3.1: Students will be able to practice health care organizational theory, health policy, the regulatory environment, and the legal and ethical issues associated with leading healthcare organizations.

Outcome 3.2: Students will be able to practice performance improvement concepts, including process improvement, quality assurance, risk management, and research methodology, required to lead complex healthcare organizations.

FA 4: Practical Application of Knowledge

Outcome 4.1: Students will apply critical thinking and decision-making skills, supported by data and analytical tools, to formulate and implement various types of strategic plans within healthcare organizations.

Outcome 4.2: Students will utilize and apply health information systems, emerging technologies, and analytics in health care.