Login Instructions

To login to your email account

➾ You must use your whole email address as the ID: example - smccull1@my.athens.edu

➾ If you are a new student, your initial PIN/Password will be an "A" plus your Student/Employee ID (including leading zeros). For instance, if your Student/Employee ID is 00012345, your PIN/Password will be A00012345
Note that when you are asked to change your password in Athens State Online, it WILL NOT change your email password. Email passwords must be changed within the email account.

➾ If you have a Hotmail account, you will need to click on the "Sign in with a different account," just below the Hotmail account ID to enter the @my.athens.edu account.

➾ If you do not know what your email address is, go to Athens State Online, click on Personal Information, and then View E-mail Address(es). If you do not see an @my.athens.edu address, please contact Admissions to make sure your student records are correct.

Notice As of Sept 14, 2013 for Student/Adjunct Email
Students/Adjuncts may be asked to change his/her password to accommodate Microsoft's new password rules.

➥ To determine what your My Athens email address is, log into your Athens State University Online account using your Student ID and your current PIN. Your email address can be found in the "Personal Information" section under "View Email Address(es)".

➥ Student access to course work posted on Blackboard Learn™ begins five (5) days before the first day of the term as published in the printed class schedule on a per-course basis (weekend & half-term courses occasionally have different start dates than full-term courses, so please consult your schedule).

➥ Changing your PIN in your Athens State University Online account is not instantaneously updated on Blackboard Learn™. Please note that this change could take up to three (3) days to take effect as system synchronization runs during Athens State University business hours only, three times daily Monday thru Friday.
