JOB DESCRIPTION: THE PRESIDENT

The President of Athens State University serves as Chief Executive Officer of the University and is to provide leadership in developing and articulating a shared strategic vision for the University, providing the capability to achieve the vision, and building an institutional culture based on the values of the University. The President is accountable to the duly appointed and autonomous Board of Trustees of Athens State University. The President is responsible for ensuring that the policies of the Board are carried out at the University. The President provides the leadership coordination, communication and discipline necessary to integrate the functional units of the institution. The President is responsible for the stewardship of all University assets and resources. The President and Provost, working as a single focused unit, are responsible for establishing an institutional culture that reflects the core values of the University and the vision of Athens State University as the premier upper division university of the state of Alabama.

The President shall perform all duties required by law, by the contractual agreement with the Board of Trustees and which by custom and practice are performed by a State of Alabama public university president including, but not limited to the following:

- 1. Ensure that the best interests of the University's students are well served in all matters and decisions.
- 2. Ensure that the University conducts its affairs in a manner that is consistent with professional best practices and the best interests of the citizens of the state of Alabama.
- 3. Establish and maintain a close and supportive working relationship with the Board of Trustees and to provide the necessary support for the work of the Board.
- 4. Regularly and effectively communicate with the Trustees to provide information concerning issues and matters of importance to the Trustees.
- 5. Regularly prepare and submit to the Trustees action item proposals for new programs, new policies, new revenue streams, new capital projects and other such items that are consistent with the tactical best interests of the University.
- 6. Establish and prioritize the strategic vision, goals, and capability improvements for the longterm future of the University and develop strategies to achieve those goals.
- 7. Recommend and implement regulations, policies, rules and procedures useful for the welfare of the University.
- 8. Project a coherent, consistent public image of the University based on the established strategic direction and capabilities.
- 9. Provide institutional, faculty and educational leadership.
- 10. Engage in fund raising and development activities along with involvement in public, government and alumni relations.
- 11. Establish and maintain institutional governance systems and the management work system of the University.
- 12. Analyze the market and external environment and establish systems for addressing changing market needs.
- 13. Formulate appropriate policies for the effective operation of the University.
- 14. Provide the leadership of the established planning process, including strategic and annual plan development, monitoring, and evaluation with the policies, procedures, and parameters established by the Board of Trustees and the President.
- 15. Establish and maintain strategic relationships and partnerships with federal, state and local elected officials, government agencies, public and private education entities, the business and industrial sector and non-profit service agencies.

- 16. Ensure financial management, including fund development, budget development and oversight, and risk management.
- 17. Select, develop and review a senior administrative leadership team to assist in building a positive university culture to ensure the mission and institutional goals are achieved.
- 18. In concert with, or when absent from campus through the Provost, the President is responsible for the supervision of the day-to-day operations of the functional units of the University, including Academic Affairs, Financial Affairs, Enrollment and Student Services, Information Technology and University Advancement.
- 19. Report data and information in a timely and accurate manner to the Alabama Commission on Higher Education (ACHE).
- 20. Ensures the institution follows applicable policies of the State Department of Education; ACHE policies for the development and implementation of academic programs; policies related to institutional accreditation (SACS) and program specific accreditation (NCATE, ACBSP).
- 21. Provide leadership for maintaining quality educational programs to ensure the University's academic and support programs serve the students well.
- 22. Coordinate Title VI activities in order to create an open and welcoming environment for diversity that will lead to greater diversity among students, faculty and staff.
- 23. Perform such other duties commensurate with his position as President that the Board of Trustees may assign.

Policy Hierarchy Definitions: Recommendations

Board of Trustee Policies:

Also known as Board Policies or Trustee Policies. Policies and any associated procedures governing the actions, procedures, and processes of the University Board of Trustees or of the individual Board members. These policies and any associated procedures apply only to the Board or Board members and do not apply to any University areas, offices, or personnel.

New Trustee Policies and changes to existing Trustee Policies must be approved by the Board of Trustees according to the rules of procedure of the Board.

University Policies:

Policies expressing the comprehensive or overriding expectations and/or requirements of the Board of Trustees, as the executive body governing the University, related to achieving the mission of the University or to the duties of the President.

New University Policies and changes to existing University Policies must be approved by the Board of Trustees according to the rules of procedure of the Board.

Operating Policies:

Policies defining the specific expectations or requirements of the President for each administrator, area, or function of the University, in accordance with the comprehensive requirements defined in the University Policies and published according to approved formats. Operating Policies may include associated comprehensive procedures when appropriate, particularly when the procedures apply to all members of the University community or to large groups (e.g., all faculty members, all staff members) within the University.

New Operating Policies must be approved by the President, and changes to existing Operating Policies must be approved by the President or the President's designee. The President's designee given the responsibility of approving changes to existing Operating Policies must be specified in the initial approval of any new Operating Policies.

Operating Procedures:

Procedures and/or processes associated with a particular Operating Policy that are specific to the day-to-day operations of a specific area, office, or function of the University in order to ensure compliance with the associated Operating Policy.

New Operating Procedures must be approved by the Vice President overseeing the area, office, or function, and changes to existing Operating Procedures must be approved by the appropriate Vice President or the Vice President's designee. The Vice President's designee given the responsibility for approving changes to existing Operating Procedures must be specified in the initial approval of any new Operating Procedures.

Operating Procedures that apply to all members of the University community or to large groups with the University (e.g., all faculty members, all staff members) should be published according to approved formats.

Operating Procedures specific to the day-to-day responsibilities of an individual or group of individuals in the performance of their duties will be maintained in internal office procedure manuals and will normally not be widely distributed or published. Distribution or publication of such office procedure manuals will be at the discretion of the appropriate Vice President and the Vice President's designee.

Athens State University Board of Trustees Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form

In accordance with Article II, Section III, item b. of the Athens State University By-Laws, trustees shall avoid conflicts of interest with the University. Specifically, Trustees should not:

Knowingly participate in discussions or decision-making regarding any item in which the Trustee or his/her family has a personal financial interest.

Advocate or attempt to influence the employment of any of their family members.

Condition any actual or potential business relationship with the Board, the University, or any of its related foundations or associations on a charitable gift or contribution.

Seek or accept personal gifts or special favors from individuals or entities that provide, or seek to provide, services or supplies to the Board, the University, or any of its related foundations or associations, except as those allowed by law.

Use the authority, title, influence, or prestige of his or her position to solicit or influence the award of business to obtain a private financial, social, or political benefit, special privilege, or unique advantage for the Trustee or his family.

Engage in any other activity that a reasonable person would expect to impair the independent judgment of a Trustee in the performance of his or her public duties.

The listing set forth above is not exclusive, and Trustees are expected to discern situations in which their conduct might create a conflict of interest in other respects or contexts. In the event of any potential or actual conflict of interest, such Trustee shall fully and publicly disclose said interest and shall not participate in the discussion, debate, or voting associated with the matter. Disclosure of any situation or circumstances in doubt should be made in order to protect the Trustee and the University. Any such disclosure shall be duly noted in the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Trustees, or its committee at which such disclosure shall be made. The Board of Trustees or any duly charged committee thereof, has the responsibility for ensuring the disclosures required by the subsection, and for enforcing the required non-participation.

Athens State University Board of Trustees Responsibilities

- 1. Contribute to efforts to sustain University mission, integrity, traditions, and value. Advance initiatives that promote the University and will influence others to be a part of its mission and help realize goals.
- 2. Recruit, approve, support, and evaluate the University president.
- 3. Participate in Board committee meetings by preparing and participating effectively and with mutual respect.
- 4. Protect fiscal integrity, approve the University budget, monitor resources and productivity, and participate in fundraising through personal yearly contributions and advocacy.
- 5. Participate when feasible in campus activities and act as an engaged member of the campus community.
- 6. Conduct ourselves in word and action whether a voting or non-voting trustee from the perspective that we serve individually and collectively, the whole institution rather than any one part of it, or any individual or group within it or outside of it, or in any partisan or political cause.
- 7. Be thoughtful in how we represent the University through our actions and words. If apparent grievances or complaints have merit, the President and/or the Board Chair shall be made aware.
- 8. Support principles of equal opportunity and nondiscrimination for all students, faculty, and staff as well as the University policy statement on diversity.
- 9. Comply with University conflict of interest policy, including the disclosure requirements.
- 10. Refrain from asking the President or other University executive or academic officer or staff for special favors on behalf of oneself, family, or friend.
- 11. Refrain from communicating either orally or in writing with any member of the administration (other than the President), staff, faculty, or student of Athens State University in an individual capacity in language or in a fashion intended to conceal or obstruct directions from the Board of Trustees.
- 12. Strictly maintain confidentiality of the Board's executive sessions, especially, but not only with respect to sensitive personnel matters.
- 13. Assist the Board President with strategic direction of the University. Trustees should give advice and share expertise freely, but should also be willing to accept the fact that not all such views will necessarily be adopted.
- 14. Participate as requested by the Trustee Committee in a self-assessment survey designed to help the committee review our trustee services.

RECOMMENDATION FOR ACTION

DATE OF BOARD MEETING: January 11, 2013

ACTION ITEM TITLE: Adopt Resolution for Purchases of Real Property

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the Athens State University Board of Trustees adopt the attached resolution for purchases of real property.

FISCAL CONSIDERATION

None.

RATIONALE

Pursuant to Legislative Act #2012-497, "the Board shall have the exclusive authority over and jurisdiction of land, buildings, and other capital improvements now existing on or hereinafter provided for such campus. No contract for capital improvements, alterations, remodeling, and changing of capital improvements shall be made without the authorization and approval of the board, and which approval shall be granted by appropriate resolutions of the body. Any contract, agreement, or other act relating to capital improvements, except for maintenance, repairs, and maintaining existing facilities, shall be void and of no effect unless authorized by resolutions of the board."

Adopting the resolution will authorize the President to make real property purchases, not to exceed $350,000 in aggregate in a fiscal year, without additional Board approval so long as sufficient budgetary resources exist and the proposed expenditure is consistent with the University's best interests and strategic priorities. This authorization would allow the University to act on real property purchases in a more expedient manner. The resolution would also allow the President to execute contracts for capital improvements, alterations, remodeling and changing of capital improvements limited to $500,000 in aggregate during a fiscal year without additional Board approval so long as sufficient budgetary resources exist and the proposed expenditure is consistent with the University's best interests and strategic priorities.
