

TO ATTEND CLASSES ON REDSTONE ARSENAL

Come to either Gate-9 (Research Blvd) or Gate-1 off the South Memorial Parkway and bring the following documentation to either Visitors Centers.

- 1. Athens State University ID for both student/staff.
Staff/faculty will have to submit a “Badge Request Form”.
- 2. Copy of your student class schedule.
- 3. Driver’s license
- 4. Your vehicle’s Registration and proof of insurance.

The Visitors Center will issue you a student badge for the duration of the semester, or a 12 month badge for Staff/faculty.

There are maps at the Visitors Centers to show you how to reach the ATHENS STATE Classrooms. In the event there is a problem, you or the Visitors Center staff can call the Admin office on RSA to resolve any issues before you leave their building. Our numbers are 256-876-7561, or 256-990-1466 (Cell)

FOR OUR ONLINE STUDENTS

If you will be coming to ATHENS STATE on Redstone to test or “sit-in” on a class or meet with your professor, you will need to notify the admin office on Redstone so that we can inform the Visitor Center of your arrival. You will have to meet all the entry requirements listed above.

Arrive 10-15 min early, just in case you are picked for a random search by the gate guards. Please ensure that you do not have any items in your car that can be considered a weapon.

If you are an employee of RSA or Military active/retiree or dependent and have access to the Arsenal, you do not have to get a Redstone Arsenal Visitors badge.

Once you have acquired your badge, our students/staff/faculty can enter the Arsenal at the following Gates.

Gate 1, South Memorial Parkway

Gate 10, Jordan Lane/Patton Rd,

Gate 9, Research Park Blvd

Athens State University classes are held in the “Education Center”, Toftoy Hall building 3495. Toftoy Hall is one block inside gate 10 at the first light on the right on Patton RD.
