

Repeated Courses

Federal Regulations limit the number of times a student may repeat a course and receive financial aid for that course.

- A student may receive aid when repeating a course that was previously failed (received a 0.0), regardless of the number of times the course was attempted and failed.
- A student may receive aid (if electing to repeat a previously passed course) one additional time.
- Once a student has completed any course twice with a passing grade, he/she is no longer eligible to receive aid for that course.
- If a student chooses to retake a course, and that course is not eligible for aid, the Office of Financial Aid will recalculate the student's aid to exclude the credits for the repeated course from eligibility.
- This rule applies whether or not the student received aid for earlier enrollments in the course.
