Anthropologist Susan Blum will visit Athens State University to talk about her research into plagiarism and writing in college.

Dr. Blum recently published a book addressing plagiarism within American culture, using her expertise in anthropology to interpret cultural beliefs about plagiarism and academic integrity as they are perceived by students on college campuses.

Please join Dr. Tony Ricks of Athens State University on February 14th, 3-4PM in Founders Hall Chapel for a discussion of Dr. Blum's book: "My Word! Plagiarism & College Culture."
